

Current Art in Mexico

by Amilcar Rivera.

A conversation about current art in Mexico consists of a narrative from my point of view as an artist and a director of an independent gallery. We will talk about the situation of art in Mexico since 2000 up to the date.

Also, I will speak about the proposal of independent spaces outside the official institutions. All this will go along with the images of the works of some of the most representative artists.