

Amilcar Rivera M. (México City 1975) is an artist graduated from Universidad Veracruzana (México). His training in literature (SOGEM, Script workshop EICTV, Cuba) and photography (Escuela activa de fotografía), as well as living in various countries have broadened his artistic horizons and practice. His characters and scenes are the result of observing his surroundings and experimenting with different materials. For the last six years Amilcar has been teaching contemporary drawing and creativity techniques at Universidad Iberoamericana. At the beginning of 2019 he opened Munive contemporary art gallery in Tlaxcala, Mexico. Rivera's work has been exhibited in multiple countries such as Mexico, Lithuania, Slovakia, Poland, Hungary, Germany, the United States, Spain and Thailand.
